

BRAZILFOUNDATION PRIVACY POLICY

Adopted on October 10, 2012, Updated on July 30th 2015

Our Commitment to Privacy

At BrazilFoundation, we understand that privacy is important. We are strongly committed to protecting the privacy of our donors, both online and offline, as well as visitors to our website. The following information is designed to help you better understand the information we gather from our website and through our services, how we protect the information once we gather it, and whether and how we disclose it to anyone.

We may, from time to time, make changes to this policy. By visiting this website, you are accepting the practices described in the current version of this Privacy Policy. If you do not agree to the terms of this Privacy Policy, do not use the website.

Please note that this Privacy Policy applies only to this website and not to other companies' or organizations' websites, including any websites to which we link. You are advised to consult the privacy policies of other websites that you visit.

Information Collection and Use

Our primary goals in collecting personal information are to provide you with a smooth, efficient, and customized experience, to send you information upon your request, and to thank you for your generosity as a donor.

Donor Privacy

If you make a donation we will request personally identifiable information about you, such as your name, address, phone number, email address and debit/credit card information. We seek such information primarily to facilitate donations and to communicate with you about them.

Unless you specify that a gift be "anonymous" or otherwise request that your name not be listed, we list the names of donors in our Annual Report and in benefit event programs, so as to recognize their generosity publicly.

We use return email addresses to answer the email we receive. Such addresses are not shared with outside parties. Finally, we never use or share the personally identifiable information provided to us online in ways unrelated to the ones described above without providing you an opportunity to opt-out or otherwise prohibit such unrelated uses.

BrazilFoundation will not trade, share, or sell a donor's personal contact (including email, address or phone numbers) or other information with any other organizations, nor send donor mailings on behalf of other organizations. However, we may be forced to disclose information to the government or third parties under certain circumstances. We cooperate with governments and private parties to enforce laws such as those regarding intellectual property rights, fraud, data privacy and security.

Our Commitment to Data Security

To prevent unauthorized access, maintain data accuracy, and ensure the correct use of information, we have put in place appropriate physical, electronic, and managerial procedures to safeguard and secure the information we collect online. Credit card information is not stored on our web site.

Social Networking Sites

BrazilFoundation operates and maintains social networking pages and venues on websites such as Facebook,

Twitter, Google, and Instagram. If you post to any of BrazilFoundation’s social networking pages on third-party websites, you are providing information to the public and do so at your own risk. Please visit the privacy policies of any third party websites before posting to BrazilFoundation’s pages there.

About Cookies

Cookies, which are small text files recorded in a user's hard drive, are employed by thousands of sites to enhance user's Web viewing experience. Cookies cannot damage user files, nor can they read information from a user's hard drive. Cookies allow Web sites to "remember" users across pages of a Web site and across multiple visits to a Web site. We use cookies for remembering preferences and maintaining information about whether you're currently logged into our systems. Because of our use of cookies, we can deliver faster service, consistent, updated results, and a more personalized site experience. Cookies in and of themselves do not personally identify users, although they do identify a user's computer. Most browsers are initially set to accept cookies. If you prefer, you can set your browser to refuse cookies. However, you may not be able to take full advantage of a Web site's functionality if you do so.

Our Commitment to Children's Privacy

We are concerned about the safety and privacy of children who use the Internet. Although we encourage children and youth to learn more about our organization, we encourage that this be done with parental supervision. Consistent with the Children's Online Privacy Protection Act of 1998 ("COPPA"), we will never knowingly request personally identifiable information from anyone under the age of 13 without prior verifiable parental consent.

Governing Law

You agree that your use of this website, this Privacy policy and any disputes relating thereto shall be governed in all respects by the laws of the State of New York. Any dispute relating to this Privacy Policy shall be resolved solely in the state or federal courts located in Manhattan, New York.
